)	ORDER
)

Counsel for various corporate parties have been contacting the Court inquiring about their obligation to file corporate disclosure statements. There appears to be some confusion about whether they should file them and, if so, where.

All non-governmental corporate parties must follow Rule 3.13 of the Local Rules for the United States District Court, Northern District of Ohio, which addresses corporate disclosure statements and identifies the information that must be disclosed. The Court adds the following instruction.

Non-governmental corporate parties in the cases identified in paragraphs 2 and 3 of Case Management Order No. 1 shall file their corporate disclosure statements in the main case, No. 1:17 MD 2804, and the member case.¹ Non-governmental corporate parties in all other cases shall file their corporate disclosure statements in the member cases only.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
